In either case, such notice must be given at least two days before the meeting.

Any Governor may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a Governor at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Governor attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully call or convened. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Governors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

A majority of the number of Governors, taking account of any vacancies on the Board, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Governors, and the act of a majority of the Governors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Governors.
